Business Summary

Rapid Link, Incorporated, together with its subsidiaries, provides various forms of voice, Internet, and data services to wholesale and retail customers worldwide. Its services include the transmission of voice and data traffic over public and private networks. The company also sells foreign and domestic termination of voice traffic into the wholesale market. In addition, it offers Internet and integrated voice services via its hybrid fiber wireless broadband network; and fixed wireless broadband Internet access via its network in Amador County, California. Further, the company provides call completion on a wholesale basis to domestic and international telecommunications companies; and international re-origination services, which allows a caller outside of the United States to place a long distance telephone call that originates from its US-based switch, calls the customer's location, and then connects the call utilizing its network to anywhere in the world. Additionally, it offers international calling cards, which provides customers a single account number to initiate direct calls from locations throughout the world using specific toll-free access numbers; and traditional 1+ long distance service to business and residential users throughout the U.S. Rapid Link, Incorporated sells and markets its services through in house sales staff, independently contracted sales agents, and third-party resellers, as well as offers a range of communication services to individuals, enterprises, and wholesale customers. The company was formerly known as Dial Thru International Corporation and changed its name to Rapid Link, Incorporated in November 2005. Rapid Link, Incorporated was founded in 1986 and is headquartered in Omaha, Nebraska.
